

UNIFORM APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO COMMUNITY & TECHNICAL COLLEGES IN WASHINGTON STATE

You are encouraged to apply online at <https://www.public.ctc.edu/ApplicantWebClient/Applicant/AppiWelcome.aspx>

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Refer to community and technical college listing for mailing address, application deadlines, fees, or other requirements, if any. All information subject to change. Please check college website for latest information.
- Sign and date application. Keep a copy for your records.
- Mail to the attention of the Admissions Office at the college of your choice, being sure to include application fees or other documents (such as residency, visa, immigration) if applicable.

NOTES: (1) Colleges prefer that you use the admissions application specific to their college, when at all possible. (2) Not all community and technical colleges accept the online application. (3) Some programs have additional admissions requirements (e.g., health-related, nursing, dental, transportation-related). Contact the college program of your choice to be sure you include necessary documents and meet prerequisites.

Please type or print with a black ballpoint pen. Shaded areas for office use only.

SECTION 5 - RESIDENCY INFORMATION

Please read the following notice before responding to the questions in this section:

Effective July 1, 2003, Washington State law changed the definition of "resident student." The law makes certain students, who are not permanent residents or citizens of the United States, eligible for resident student status - and eligible to pay resident tuition rates - when they attend public colleges and universities in this state. The law does not make these students eligible to receive need-based state or federal financial aid. To qualify for resident status, students must complete an affidavit/declaration/certification if they are not permanent residents or citizens of the United States but have met one of the following conditions:

- Condition One: (a) Resided in Washington State for three years immediately prior to receiving a high school diploma, and (b) Completed the full senior year at a Washington high school, and (c) Continuously resided in the state since earning the high school diploma.
- Condition Two: (a) Completed the equivalent of a high school diploma, and (b) Resided in Washington State for the three years immediately before receiving the equivalent of the diploma, and (c) Continuously resided in the State since earning the equivalent of a high school diploma.

NOTE: If you meet one of the above conditions and would like to pay resident tuition rates, contact the college(s) you are applying to and request the Residency Affidavit form.

Residency Questions for Tuition Purposes:

1. Have you been a legal resident* of Washington and lived continuously in the State of Washington for the past 12 months? Yes No
A student cannot qualify as a legal resident of Washington for tuition calculation purposes if s/he possesses a valid out-of-state driver's license, vehicle registration, or other documents that give evidence of being a legal resident in another state.*
 If no, how long have you lived continuously in the state of Washington? _____ Months.
- 2a. Were you claimed for federal income tax purposes by your mother, father, or legal guardian in the current calendar year? Yes No
 2b. In the past calendar year? Yes No
 If YES to either 2a or 2b, has your parent or legal guardian lived continuously in the Washington State for the past 12 months? Yes No
3. Will a public or private non-federal agency/institution outside the state of Washington provide you with financial assistance to attend college? (answer yes only if your eligibility for this assistance is based on being a resident of that state) Yes No
4. Are you active duty military stationed in Washington or a member of the Washington National Guard? Yes No
 Are you the spouse or dependent of either (a) an active duty military person stationed in Washington, or (b) a member of the Washington National Guard? Yes No
